

Radio Bundelkhand Celebrates International Labour Day

On the occasion of International Labour Day on 1st May 2019, Radio Bundelkhand broadcasted a live-in programme. Two labourers from Bundelkhand – Arjun Pal and Surendra Pal, were invited to speak about their life experiences as labourers. They shared that earlier they were not paid as per the Minimum Wages Act and were exploited. But now as the labourers have become aware of their rights and entitlements, they are able to fight for themselves and gain the respect that they deserve. The programme also gave a chance to the listeners to share their views. The listeners shared their views on giving respect to the labourers who toil so hard all day through to earn a day's living. It is imperative that they earn on daily basis, so they should be paid at the end of the wage day.
